

Science-Industry Talk

Host: IST(A) Tech Park

The Science Industry Talk 2022 provides a forum to discuss the delivery of innovative science and science-based business ideas through spin-offs, industry-academia collaboration – or both. We will give an update on the innovation ecosystem at and around ISTA, the activities of our venture fund IST cube and our science park. In our new format “The future of...” leaders in their domains will present the status and outlook of exciting science and technology areas. Finally, scientists and scientific entrepreneurs will discuss opportunities and challenges with representatives from industry.

Tuesday, October 11, 2022 06:00pm - 08:15pm
